

ARGOSY UNIVERSITY.

The human side of success

Ready to take your career as an educator or school administrator to the next level?

Find out how to advance your professional career through Argosy University, Chicago and Schaumburg.

Getting a degree is one thing. Succeeding, quite another. At Argosy University, we recognize that knowing how to interact effectively with other people is as vital to your career as anything else you can learn. We pave the way to your success with a curriculum that focuses on interpersonal skills and practical experience alongside academic knowledge.

Argosy University, Chicago Campus makes education convenient for you

- Flexible schedules include a unique blend of campus, off-campus and online instruction
- Afternoon, evening and weekend classes help you manage your education with the rest of your life
- Small class sizes and personal attention provide a dynamic learning environment; courses can begin with six (6) students
- Trimester design with eight-week courses

Argosy University degrees include:

Master of Arts in Education (MA.Ed.), Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) and Education Specialist (Ed.S) in:

- ✓ Educational Leadership
- ✓ Instructional Leadership

Along with a Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) degree in:

- ✓ Community College Executive Leadership
- ✓ Organizational Leadership

Now announcing Illinois Type 75 Administrative Certification in education! The Illinois State Board of Education has authorized Argosy University, Chicago Campus to offer masters and doctoral programs that lead to the administrative certification for P-12 school principals and district superintendents. New Certificate of Advanced Study (CAS) and Educational Specialist programs offers a “fast track” option to administrative certification. Enhance your employment options by obtaining this important certification!

Fall I term classes are scheduled to begin during the week of September 2, 2008. Courses may be offered at the North Cook Intermediate Service Center. Argosy will establish an off-campus site and offer classes at your workplace! Minimum enrollment required is six (6) students. Classes are designed for working educators and are taught by faculty who possess both academic credentials and substantial professional experience. Learning focuses on real-world application, best practices and action research. You will be prepared to succeed and lead!

Inquire now! Receive personalized responses to your questions about degree programs, financial aid, admissions procedures, and more. Contact:

Dr. Tim Brown, Chair, College of Education/Chicago: tbrown@argosy.edu or call 312-777-7019

Michelle Pyszkowski, Director of Admissions/Chicago: mpyszkowski@argosy.edu or call 312-777-7605

Dr. David VanWinkle, Chair, College of Education/Schaumburg: dvanwinkle@argosy.edu or call 847-969-4922

Jeffrey Rockenfield, Director of Admissions/Schaumburg: jrockenfield@argosy.edu or call 847-969-4901

For more information about Argosy University visit www.argosy.edu

For the 2007-2008 Argosy University academic catalog visit www.argosy.edu/admissions/academic-catalog.aspx

Argosy University, Chicago Campus: 225 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60601 Tel. 312-777-7600